BEST CARPET CLEANERS 2010

After making a name for himself operating the franchise Heaven's Best cleaners, Tim McLaughlin decided to start his own venture, Baltimore Steam Cleaners, 410-46-STEAM, baltimoresteamcleaners.com.

"We found a better way to do things," he says. "And now we're busier than ever." Instead of hand-held, low-moisture units used by the franchise—which, he says, are okay for "maintaining" clean rugs—he moved to a system that can eradicate the really tough stuff, like nasty smells and pet stains.
