BEST Carpet Cleaners Baltimore Steam Cleaners

Ten years of dirt being tracked in, the spilled beer and stale cigarette smells from your son's college friends, and all those pet accidents: Frankly, Scarlett, your rugs stink. Time to call Tim McLaughlin and brother, Dan, at Baltimore Steam, which serves the city and surrounding counties. Tim had been in the business for years, but decided three years ago he could do a better job for folks if he started his own company. He's on time, thorough, and, in just a couple of hours, will have your carpets or area rugs smelling less like wet dogs and more like what they're supposed to smell like—absolutely nothing. 410-493-0866.
